Biography

Prescott O Lieberg, III "Scott"

Rationale:

I am flattered to be nominated for the office of Director of the Pine Mountain Club Property Owners Association. I was surprised. Serving on the Strategic Planning and Emergency Preparedness Committees, I have already been afforded the forum for "weighing in" on important PMC matters.

I am squarely on the side of the Club House rebuild. As a California Licensed Real Estate Broker, former Vice President in real estate lending, and former City Planning Commissioner for City of Alhambra, I fully understand the impact community has on home real estate values. The club house project is probably my biggest driver in seeking this position.

My wife, Linda, and I are putting down deep roots here and moving to PMC full time this summer. Linda is the President of the local wine club and I am the Assistant Coordinator for the PMC CERT Team.

Professionally, as a Certified Business Broker with Sunbelt Business Brokers and Advisors, I list and sell small and medium sized businesses. I am a member of the California Association of Business Brokers and sold the local PMC gas station. Linda and I are also real estate investors in California and Texas.

During my tenure with the US Small Business Administration (SBA), Office of Disaster Assistance, I helped bring recovery aid to victims of over 20 Federally Declared Disasters. As part of my duties, I spent several months in the New Orleans area for Hurricane Katrina and the BP oil spill. The sum of these experiences really taught me to put life's problems in perspective.

For fun and entertainment, I invested 41 years as a member of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association, becoming an Honorary Life Member a couple of years ago.

PMC is blessed with deep talent, people with varied accomplishments and achievements. Many of them have served, many now serve, and many are waiting in the wings. Thank you for your consideration.
